

Textbook Affordability Advisory Committee

A group comprised of representatives from Arts & Sciences, Career & Technical Divisions, Instructional Technologies & Distance Learning, Bookstore, and Library that is dedicated to reducing textbook costs for students.

How much students have saved on textbooks and learning materials since July 2013:

$2.3 Million

How we reduce textbook costs:

- Training and educating students & faculty.
- Encouraging the development of digital content.
- Negotiating textbook prices.
- Expanding used book quantities and textbook rentals.

Our Long-Term Goal:

Help Columbus State transition into the digital era of learning modules.
